Anti-aging skincare can be expensive. It's easy to spend a ton of money on creams and serums that promise to prevent fine lines and wrinkles. However, you don't always have to spend a lot of money to get great skin. We spoke to a few leading dermatologists and they gave us some tips for cheap anti-aging skincare products. Each of these products is dermatologist recommended and super inexpensive. Click through the slideshow to check them out.

Aquaphor Advanced Therapy Healing Ointment Skin Protectant \(\$14.01\)

Jane Scher RN BSN, is an Certified Nurse Injector in New York City. She recommends using a light layer of Aquaphor on your face as a mask once a week. It'll hydrate your skin, making it soft and supple. It also restores your skin's natural moisture and is safe for people with oily skin.

EltaMD AM Therapy Facial Moisturizer
($31.50)

Jane also recommends EltaMD AM Therapy Facial Moisturizer and EltaMD PM Therapy Facial Moisturizer. The price is great, and they moisturize while it smoothes skin texture and evens skin color and tone. Jane regularly uses these products on her patients following treatments as they're safe for even the most sensitive of skin.
